Trimnings. Flat trimmings promise to be very fashionable this winter, in the shape of broad ribbon velvet, heavy braids, cords, gimps and bindings, but heavy corded braids principally, in addition to black velvet, and the galloons which are used so much for cloth suits.

One of the sensations consists of white dresses, white grenadine or white mohair, trimmed with black velvet and black knotted silk fringe.

Cords, gimps, and narrow galloons striped in the Roman colors, are used to trim gray or black alpaca dresses with very good effect; and Roman striped silk or satin is also largely used, cut into narrow bias folds, which alternate with others of the material, or are employed as headings to a fringe trimming.

These goods, striped on black or some more striking color, are also cut into revers, sailor collars, and the broad mousquetaire cuffs now worn, and form a most effective goith to plain house dresses of merino, empress cloth or cashmere.

WHAT IS AN EDITOR?—An exchange answers the above question thusly: "Why, he is a man who reads the newspapers, writes articles on most any subject, sets type, reads proof, folds mail, runs on errands, saws wood, draws water, works in her garden, talks to all who come, is blamed for a hundred things which are nobody's business but his own, works from 5 a. m. to 10 p. m., helps people to get into office, (who forget all about it afterward,) and frequently gets cheated out of half his own earnings. He prefs and does more to build up a town than any other body, and the miser and fogey are benefited thereby, yet they will say that the editor's paper is of no account, and will not advertise or take the paper, but will borrow it. Who wouldn't be an editor?"

A family residing near Adamsville, in Maskingum county, spiritualists, have had, they profess, a communication from the spirit world, to the effect that the family, numbering some four or five persons, will receive a legacy of $50,000 each. This vast legacy is located in Jersey City, the estate of a man named Leonard deceased, for which no persons have established their claims as rightful heirs.

A case occurred at Sydney, Ohio, a few days since, that may be considered sensational. A beautiful young lady called at one of the stores in that place, and asked the polite clerk if he had any "celine" in his for lyrical purposes. She wanted cut gut guitar strings. For once in his life the young man was "weakened," and he was carried out on a cancelled postage stamp.
